

Milestones include:

- 2005 Limited company formation
- 2007 UK Biotechnet launch
- 2008 Move to Oxford Science Park; joint venture to create Meeting Mojo
- 2009 Accreditation as a trade organisation (ATO); first TAP funded mission to Bio-Europe
- 2010 New branding and the BioPartnership Programme welcomed its first members: Almac Group, Charles Kendall BioLogistics, Epistem, Illingworth Research, and Selcia are still with us!
- 2011 Collaborative working begins with BIA, One Nucleus, and EBN; spin out company Meeting Mojo Ltd created
- 2012 Move to London Kensington offices; Anglonordic Life Science conference strategic and operational support began
- 2013 UKTI Trade Challenge Partner status awarded; Advisory Board set up; members' online community launched with expansion of supported events
- 2014 US office set up; launches United Life Sciences and UK Life Sciences Manifesto 2015-20 with strategy partners
- 2015 Re-accreditation as a UKTI Trade Challenge Partner includes management of grants for BIO and AusBiotech; largest UK delegation to Bio-Europe with a record number of grant-funded companies.