

Subject: BioPartner discounts for forthcoming international events

Date: Fri, 25 Nov 2011

If you are considering Biotech Showcase in early January (San Francisco), BioPartnering North America in late February (Vancouver) or Bio-Europe in March (Amsterdam) and haven't yet registered - we can offer you a minimum, no strings $200, $400, €200 discount respectively, per delegate on conference entry fees.

BioPartner.co.uk is an independent, accredited trade organisation, that works with the world's major biopartnering conference organisers to obtain discounted entry fees and extra exposure for UK companies. If your company is a member of our BioPartnership Programme, or one of our regional alliance partners, you also have access to increased discounts and extra benefits.

Register via the links at www.biopartner.co.uk/overseas.php

You can also join the UK delegations in Vancouver, Amsterdam and at ChinaBio in Suzhou, to see your company logo on the UK stand and full profile in the online and printed brochure - see example at: <http://www.biopartner.co.uk/beu11.php>
